Let's light up the town for Christmas

HONITON Chamber of Commerce are on a mission to light up the town this Christmas and need your help.

The chamber are collecting money to buy Christmas lights for the town to make sure that the displays on the High Street and across New Street are better than ever.

Mandy Newman, speaking on behalf of the chamber, said: "This year, ideally, we would like to finish lighting the town. Obviously, we will only be able to do this with the help of local businesses generously supporting us, as they did last year."

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedial.co.uk

Last year, the chamber purchased 13 sets of lights for the High Street, and four more have already been bought this year, plus a large display to go across the end of New Street.

The chamber and the organising committee are encouraging businesses that didn't donate last year, to do so in 2015 and help finish purchasing the lights Honiton needs.

"These lights only need purchasing once. If they go wrong they are easily and cheaply revamped. We will then only have to find the funds to erect and take them down," Mrs Newman said.

The chamber will be around the town collecting money for the next few months asking businesses for sponsorship and selling raffle tickets, the first prize being £1,000. They will also be collecting outside Tesco for three days during September and October.

The lights have been provisionally booked to go up on November 20th so the race is on for the chamber and the committee to raise the funds needed to finish Honiton's Christmas display.

In May, Councillor Ashley Alder, a market trader in the town, raised the issue at a council meeting and said there had been a general sense of disappointment with last year's festive decorations.

"When you look at Ottery St Mary and Sidmouth, and the way they attracted people, Honiton was sadly lacking. It's something that can really help generate trade for the town.

Committee members Ali Pilkington, Colin Wright, Paula Land and Peter Corke collected £350 on Charter Day in July and the town council have also donated £1,000 to the Christmas Lights fund.

Businesses that want to deploy collection boxes, donate or sell raffle tickets to help with the fundraising should contact Mandy Newman at mandynewman55@icloud.com

Quotes of the week...

“Community hospitals must be saved, not least to prevent bed-blocking and Black Alerts at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital.

“The closure of the minor injuries unit means that people will have to travel further, thus creating additional demand on hospitals already under pressure from those who are ill.”

James Goddard, campaigning to save beds at Ottery St Mary Hospital

“This has been a challenging project so far with a centrally located, aged building to remove and many onerous planning conditions to meet.

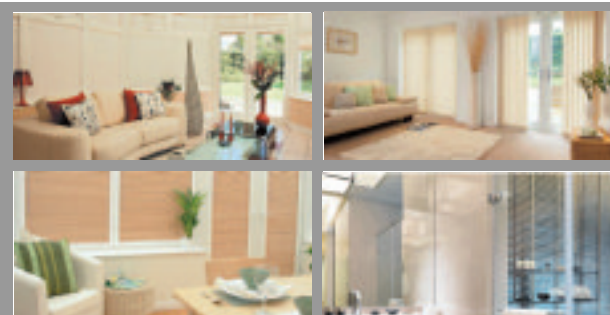

“However, we have been able to meet all of our goals to date and now look forward to seeing the space develop as the building is painstakingly reduced to rubble and cleared.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SEATON & BEER Grove redevelopment will make 'significant' difference to town

THE transformation of the Grove Niteclub site in Seaton is expected to be completed two weeks before Easter next year.

Demolition of the once popular town centre nightclub is under way to make space for a development of five three-story houses, a three-floor building with office/retail space, a gymnasium and a restaurant.

Interest in office accommodation and the restaurant premises have been strong, and the houses will be put on the market at a later stage.

Axminster Tools and Machinery MD Ian Styles said: "This has been a challenging project so far with a centrally located, aged building to remove and many onerous planning conditions to meet.

From the editor's chair Honours richly deserved

THIS column rarely misses a chance to highlight the achievements of those who work so hard to improve the lives of those who live and work in Pulman's Country.

In town and village throughout East Devon and South Somerset there is a rare breed who serve their communities in so many ways – and usually they have been doing it for many years, often unrecognised and in many cases unpublished.

Two such people I happen to know very well and I'm delighted that we have been able to feature them on the front page of our Axminster edition this week.

When I first started covering Axminster as a young reporter in the mid 1960s there was one character who stood out from the rest – H.R. Jeffery, who was known all over town as "Lord Jeff of Ducking Stool Bridge".

Although a stalwart of the community, being a leading light in the Chamber of Commerce and a parish councillor, Lord Jeff was a real showman. He was hugely kind to me and I've always considered him one of my local heroes.

They say "like father like son" and that is certainly the case with John Jeffery who has just been made an Alderman of East Devon, having stood down as an EDDC councillor.

If I was to record the many ways in which John has served his beloved home town, it would take up several pages of this paper. Never was an award so richly deserved.

I am also pleased to see that another former Mayor of Axminster, Mervyn Symes, has just been elected a Governor of the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital. A fervent campaigner for Axminster Hospital for many years, his appointment may, perhaps, help to safeguard the future of Axminster Hospital but he will also be a dedicated Governor in a wider role. A great signing for the RD & E.

HONITON Let's light up the town for Christmas

HONITON Chamber of Commerce are on a mission to light up the town this Christmas and need your help.

The chamber are collecting money to buy Christmas lights for the town to make sure that the displays on the High Street and across New Street are better than ever.

Mandy Newman, speaking on behalf of the chamber, said: "This year, ideally, we would like to finish lighting the town. Obviously, we will only be able to do this with the help of local businesses generously supporting us, as they did last year."

Last year, the chamber purchased 13 sets of lights for the High Street, and four more have already been bought this year, plus a large display to go across the end of New Street.

SIDMOUTH Regatta rounds off a busy summer

A JAM packed August was bought to a close in Sidmouth as the 26th annual regatta finished things off in style.

The month saw thousands of visitors flock to Sidmouth's famous seaside, to enjoy Folk Week, the return of the Red Arrows and the Regatta.

Sidmouth Sailing club formed a committee 26-years-ago to put the regatta back on the calendar and the annual fixture has become a very popular event.

The idea behind Sidmouth regatta is to provide everyone, whether they are local families or tourists who wish to take part in sailing races, a fun packed weekend.

SOUTH SOMERSET Former MP denied peerage

FORMER Yeovil MP David Laws has been denied a peerage because he breached expenses rules, it was announced last week.

Mr Laws lost his seat as Yeovil MP in the May General Election after 14 years. The one time Chief Secretary to the Treasury was one of 11 Liberal Democrat candidates nominated by ex-Deputy Prime Minister Nick Clegg to join the House of Lords. But the bid was blocked by the House of Lords Appointments Commission.

Mr Laws' spell as Chief Secretary to the Treasury came to an end after 17 days – making him the shortest serving member of the Cabinet in modern history – after the 2010 General Election, when it emerged that he had taxpayer £950 a month to rent two rooms in a property owned by his partner, James Lundie, totalling £45,000.

This was in breach of rules introduced prevent MPs from using their second home allowances to contribute towards the mortgage or rent from a partner or family member.

OTTERY ST MARY Hospital campaigners seek judicial review

OTTERY hospital supporters are seeking a judicial review over the decision to close inpatient beds and the minor injuries unit.

The supporters group is challenging the process in which the decision was made by the Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (New Devon CCG) and is working with others who have similar problems and are keen to link with other groups, including the League of Friends of Ottery Hospital, and local councils.

James Goddard, who has led the Ottery campaign from the beginning said they must demonstrate to the CCG and others involved in taking decisions which ignore the wishes of local people and undermine their interests, that they are "blatantly wrong."

Mr Goddard said: "Community hospitals must be saved, not least to prevent bed-blocking and Black Alerts at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital. The closure of the minor injuries unit means that people will have to travel further, thus creating additional demand on hospitals already under pressure from those who are ill."

Two thousand people signed a petition in favour of sustaining Ottery Hospital and many of those felt the CCG's process which led to the decision, was profoundly dissatisfying.

Magna Carta exhibition at Beehive

HONITON's Beehive is playing host to an exciting exhibition about the Magna Carta.

The 800-year-old charter exhibition has been traveling the country and now makes a stop in Honiton thanks to organiser Tony Simpson. Mr Simpson said he was grateful to the Town Council and the Beehive for providing a superb exhibition area and also thanked Mayor Caroline Kolek for opening the exhibition.

Honiton can trace some of its ancient rights and traditions to the time of the Magna Carta and recently celebrated its own Charter Day, a celebration of the royal charter granted to Honiton which arranged protection from arrest to ensure revelers visited the town's Fair Week without the fear of being locked up for their debts.

The exhibition is showing off, for the first time, two unusual wall reliefs of the Battle of Evesham (1265) when, 50 years after Magna Carta was signed rebellious barons were defeated by Henry III. The event, which also has activities for children, will remain at the Beehive until September 6th and then moves on to the Colyford Goose Fayre on September 26th.

Clocks wanted

HONITON's Thelma Hulbert Gallery is appealing to the public for donations – of old clocks.

The strange request is all part of an ambitious art installation by renowned international artist Luke Jerram, who is planning on using 1,000 clocks to create a 'garden of time' as part of the national festival, Museums at Night.

The THG, which defeated other competing galleries in a public vote to be able to collaborate with Luke, would like the community to donate any unwanted clocks and play an important part in Mr Jerram's installation, which will be at the THG from October 27th–31st.

Luke Jerram said he was excited to work with an arts organisation he hasn't worked with before – especially on such an experimental project.

"I hope to create a garden of time," he explained. "Winding Pathways will draw visitors through the shifting landscape. Each area of the installation will sound different."

People donating their clocks are urged to attach a personal story or memory relating to their clock, as the THG would love to collect these memories as well.

"The public will recognise some of the clocks from

Fraud warning

POLICE in Honiton are issuing an urgent warning following an increase in reports of telephone and courier fraud over the summer.

Police Community Support Officer Steve Mingo said the neighbourhood team had been receiving daily reports of fraud crimes over the summer.

The force is now calling on members of the community to take steps to ensure they do not become victims.

PCSO Mingo said: "This type of fraud is rising. However, you can prevent it by taking a few simple precautions.

"We urge those with elderly relatives or neighbours to spread the message about telephone fraud as the fraudsters will often target this generation."

He added that the police will never ask for bank card or PIN numbers over the phone and that anyone who suspects a fraud caller should tell them they will be reported to the police and put the phone down.

their home and from their past. The cacophony of clock sounds will heighten the visitor's awareness of time passing," Mr Jerram said.

Any clocks that will be donated cannot be returned to their owners and following the exhibition, which may tour to other venues, the clocks will be recycled or where appropriate sold to raise money for the THG's community learning programme.

Gallery Curator Angela Blackwell praised the public's support for bringing Luke's talents to Honiton but asked them for one more push by becoming a major part of the art installation, by donating their clocks.

The clocks can be any shape or size, in perfect working order or not working at all. For more details on donating the clocks, visit the Thelma Hulbert Gallery on Dowell Street or contact a member of staff by phone 01404 45006 or email info@thelmahulbert.com

Half-hourly bus to run between Bridport and Axminster

TWO services have been combined to provide a bus every half hour between Axminster and Bridport via Lyme Regis.

First Wessex has announced its winter timetable, which will come into effect on Saturday, September 26th.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A company spokesperson said: "The winter timetables for these services have been revised with Service X31 being renumbered X51.

"There are some route modifications to Service X53 between Lyme Regis and Exeter, and the timetable has been reduced to match demand."

For example, Seaton has lost a number of services.

The spokesperson added: "Services X51/X53 have been combined between Bridport and Axminster to provide a bus every 30 minutes Monday to Saturday.

"Service X53 will operate every two hours on Sundays between Weymouth, Bridport, Lyme Regis and Axminster."

The winter timetable is available online at http://www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/dorset/journey_planning/timetables/forthcoming.php

Charity boxes stolen in vet surgery break-in

A BURGLAR was chased away by a member of staff but managed to steal two charity collection boxes from Coombefield Vets in Manor Road, Seaton.

In a separate incident, another charity collection box was stolen from Pecorama in Beer.

The Coombefield Vets break-in occurred at about 11.30pm on Wednesday, August 27th.

The company revealed the incident on its Facebook page, saying: "A window was smashed and the intruder stole the charity boxes that our wonderful clients have been donating to."

"Sad for the practice as one has to ask the question, 'was it worth causing hundreds of pounds of damage to gain less than £20'?"

"The charities affected were Cats Protection and Guide Dogs for the Blind."

"Fortunately one of our vets was there and chased them off before they could get anything else."

Police confirmed there had been a break-in, saying: "It appears a male offender arrived on a bicycle, approached the side window and smashed the glass."

"The description we have [of the suspect] is of slight build and wearing a red hoodie."

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101. The crime reference is CR/059864/15.

The Pecorama break-in happened at about 11pm on Wednesday, August 19th.

Pecorama finance director Chris Noake said that damage was caused to doors when the perpetrators gained entry to the canteen.

A charity collection box, containing approximately £80, was taken. CCTV footage has been handed to police.

Fundraisers tackle 110-mile trek for Hospiscare

TWO local Honiton fundraisers are taking on an extraordinary challenge – trekking 110-miles around the East Devon countryside.

Emma Smith, 37, and Erica Podbery, 26, are taking on the mammoth feat to raise money for Hospiscare.

Neither of the two women have accomplished such a large fundraising event before but have taken part in other charity events such as the Race for Life. However, daunting challenges are something Emma and Erica seem to relish. In November 2014, the two Honiton locals decided to compete in gymnastics once again, after being retired for a number of years. They entered the National Veterans competition and finished a brilliant third place and that competition inspired them to take on a tough challenge to help others.

"We don't really have a fundraising target to reach, we just want to raise as much as possible, to help those who need it. We are really looking forward to raising the money and seeing the good work that will be done with it, although we could do without the British weather and the blisters."

The five day trek will start on Tuesday, September 8th and encompass large parts of East Devon as the girls will walk from Honiton to Lyme Regis on day one with day two consisting of a giant effort along the Jurassic Coast from Lyme Regis to Exmouth. The next two days find the intrepid duo covering ground around Feniton, Ottery St Mary and Honiton before the fifth day's final effort. Erica and Emma will start in Honiton and walk to Stockland, through the surrounding villages, through Dunkseswell and finally finishing back in Honiton on Saturday, September 12th.

"We chose Hospiscare mainly because of the new day care centre that opened in Honiton. We have both raised money for Cancer Research UK and that money went on to help people have the necessary tests to help catch cancer sooner. We wanted to stick to a similar charity and hospiscare deal with the opposite side of things where they care for people who have the disease."

Donations are still being received and Erica and Emma urge you to give to their worthy cause at www.justgiving.com/Erica-Emma15

at Honiton Hill Rally

HONITON Hill's 42nd rally once again proved to be a big success across East Devon as hundreds of visitors and exhibitors took to Stockland Hill to admire all things motorised.

Despite the grey weather visitors

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemediaco.uk

flocked to the rally which this year, featured a few minor changes including a classic tractor section, however, all the old favourites remained, such as the military vehicles, stationary engines, classic cars and of course the steam engine section. Chairman Dean Canniford thanked all of the committee for their support and hard work throughout the last year.

"Without this strong team of individuals we would not be able to maintain the special features and rally atmosphere for you to enjoy.

"I would also like to thank Mr and Mrs Parris and Mr and Mrs Spiller for their continued support. We appreciate the advice you give us to help us run a successful rally, especially when the weather is not on our side."

The committee is considering changing the rally to a three-day event to cover the bank holiday, starting on the Saturday and closing with the traditional auction on the Monday.

This year's auction had more than 2,000 lots, with plenty of possible purchases for everyone.

Police search for missing man

DEVON and Cornwall Police are appealing to the public to help them find a 65-year-old man who went missing from his home on Millhead Road at around 10pm on August 26th.

The police say they are concerned for Stephen Cogger's welfare as his disappearance is "very out of character".

Mr Cogger is white and stands 6ft 4in and is of a thin build, he has short brown/greying hair, is clean-shaven and wears glasses.

Mr Cogger could be wearing a blue fleece top.

Anyone with any information is urged to contact the police on 101 and quote log number 368.

Something for everyone at Outdoors Festival

CROWDS flocked to the seafront and town centre for Seaton's inaugural Great Outdoors Festival, held on Sunday, August 23rd.

Organised by the Seaton Town Development Team (TDT) and Seaton Town Council, it was held to formally launch Seaton's new brand – The Home of Outdoor Adventure.

Organisers say there is a huge amount of active pursuits in Seaton – from running, tennis, cycling, BMXing, walking and football to water sports and orienteering. Festivalgoers could try a host of activities there and then.

In addition, more than £700 worth of prizes were available at the raffle, including a first prize of an electric ride-on car (worth £150) given by Seasons Toy Store, who donated over £300 worth of prizes from their extensive range.

Other prizes included a ticket on Seaton Tramway's Polar Express, an overnight stay at Bay Tree House B&B, LED family gym memberships, clothing from Fuchsia Fashions and a restaurant voucher from Tandoori Tonight.

"We're really delighted it went so well," commented Karin Frewin, marketing and event specialist.

She added: "A massive thank you to everyone who trusted us that the sun would come out in the afternoon and helped the event go so well."

"In particular, thanks to our amazing Town Development Team who braved the rain to set the event up, our town councillors who manned roads, to Tesco which provided a team of staff to help throughout the day – and a special thanks to our musicians who included Karl Weber's bands, and Phoebe and Rory (just 11 and 12-years-old) who opened the afternoon live music set."

The festival continued after dusk with a beachside chillout, featuring live onstage bands and a fireworks display which was enjoyed by hundreds of people on the beach.

Karin praised event sponsors and everyone else who helped with the festival.

50th anniversary carnival's busy Bank Holiday

SEATON'S 50th carnival is well and truly underway despite a postponement of the first event.

The aim was to get a head start by holding the carnival crabbing competition on Sunday, August 23rd but bad weather forced a postponement.

Instead, the event was held a week later on Sunday, August 30th at Seaton Angling Centre.

A flurry of activities, including a combined table top sale and fun day, and carnival bingo marked the official start of Carnival Week on Saturday.

A string of events followed over the Bank Holiday weekend, and there is more to come before the grand procession on Saturday evening.

Organisers have produced a bumper 56-page programme, which reveal there will be a carnival car treasure hunt and the carnival skittles competition today (Tuesday).

Tomorrow (Wednesday) promises a "Battle of the Brains" as the annual carnival quiz night goes ahead in Seaton Town Hall.

The same venue will host the carnival murder mystery night by Seaton Drama Group the following day.

The two headliners for Friday are the open shore fishing competition and Seaton Carnival Variety Night.

Dogs will take centre stage on Saturday morning when the fun dog show takes over the Esplanade.

This year's grand procession sets off at 8pm on Saturday (September 5th).

At the time of writing, organisers had 40 entries and were confident of at least equaling last year's tally of 42.

Anyone interested in helping out as a volunteer money collector during the procession is asked to carnival committee member June Millman on 01297 234 91.

News in brief

"The Rattenbury Lodge RAOB at Beer would like to thank all the volunteers who made the event such a success along with the generosity of locals and visiting holidaymakers.

"The Lodge is keen to recruit new members to help raise funds, meeting once a week for a couple of hours. The secretary can be contacted via email at buffs.secretary@beersocialclub.co.uk or via mail at RAOB, Beer Social Club, Berry Hill, Beer, Seaton, Devon."

Seventy years anniversary

DONALD and Jean Lee had 70 reasons to celebrate on August 18th, which is exactly what they did.

Friends and family joined the former Seaton couple in their Axminster home to mark and celebrate 70 years of married life.

Donald was 20 and Jean 18 when they married, having met about three years earlier when working at Lucas Industries in Birmingham. Jean was training to become a metallurgist and Donald worked in a laboratory.

The war intervened so Donald joined the RAF in 1943 and trained in the US and Canada.

The war in Europe finished and the couple got married in Shirley, Warwickshire, before Donald was off to fly with the RAF in the Far East.

He was stationed in places like Hong Kong and Japan, describing it as "two years of intense flying".

When he left in 1947 he was a flight lieutenant.

Jean had carried on working so the couple could build their own house in Birmingham – total cost £1,080.

Donald returned to Lucas Industries as a stop-gap measure, which came to last more than 40 years.

A return to flying was an alternative, but Donald liked

They moved to The Mendips in the early 1950s when he became the company's agricultural and marine service manager for the South West.

Having ventured into the guesthouse business, they bought The Check House in Seaton in 1978, which they ran until a move to Colyford about ten years later.

Donald and Jean have been Axminster residents since 2001.

Jean said: "We've had what we call a busy life."

The busy lifestyle is by no means over, Donald saying: "I still play golf but 'only' twice a week, so I can still walk 18 holes."

Donald and Jean have three children - Christopher (who lives in Yorkshire), David (Panama) and Sarah (Australia) plus five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Payhembury play

TWO youngsters play the lead roles in Tale Valley Community Theatre's (TVCT) promenade production They Dream of Home, set in Payhembury during World War I.

Fifteen-year-old Catherine Davies, a student at Uffculme School, plays Gwen who is attracted to village boy Albert (Bertie) Willis, played by sixteen-year-old Caius Nicholas, of The King's School, Ottery St Mary.

Under the gaze of the close-knit and ever vigilant community they have no opportunity to declare or pursue their love before Bertie joins the Army.

The audience see him and his best friend Thomas (Tom) Dimond being trained before they are shipped to France.

Bertie and Tom are based on real characters whose names appear on the Payhembury war memorial.

Ken Dimond, the nephew of Tom lives close to the memorial and will speak to the audience at the play's end.

Ken has given permission for his uncle's identity to be used as has Australian Jenny Shearn (née Willis), niece of Albert.

The scenes happen in a range of Payhembury locations and the actors and audience members walk from scene to scene, culminating at the War Memorial.

John Somers is the play's writer and director, Andy Hague being the musical director.

Due to its promenade style, in which the audience is often very close to the action, numbers are restricted to 120 for each performance on the 19th and 20th September.

Tickets can be obtained from Paula Nelson at paulafnelson@aol.com or 01404 841232.

You can see more about TVCT and its work at tvctheatre.org

Battle of Britain service at Yarcombe

YARCOMBE Church will host a service on Sunday, September 6th to salute those who took part in the Battle of Britain.

The service will start at 6pm, to be followed up by a combined coffee morning and exhibition on Tuesday, September 8th in Yarcombe Village Hall, from 10.30am until about 2pm.

The chairman of the Yarcombe and Membury branch of The Royal British Legion, Michael JH Ford, said: "It should not be overlooked that there were over 70 pilots killed flying out of Exeter Airport joining in the fight over Eastern England."

Robin Gilbert, who designed the Statute of Remembrance at Exeter Airport to those pilots who flew out of Exeter Airport and lost their lives, will be a special guest at the coffee morning.

Mr Ford explained: "He is holding an exhibition concerning the Battle of Britain and the flying done out of Exeter Airport at this coffee morning. "Having already seen the exhibition I can highly recommend it as being a most interesting part of our West Country history and well worth a visit."

Cotleigh Challenge and Fete a big success

COTLEIGH Challenge and Cotleigh Fete came on consecutive days, making the parish playing fields be the place to be, writes Anders Larsson.

Challenges were completed in teams of six and the eventual winners were Team Lilley, closely followed by Yarcombe and Authers.

Cotleigh Fete started with The Rev. Peter Walker opening the new playground equipment before coming down the slide.

The main competition winners were: Steve George – Westholmsleigh Cup for Best in Show with a superb loaf of bread; Dawn Howard – Larcombe Cup for cookery; Sophie George – Doug Lane Cup for flowers; Gill Goss – Woollacott Cup for home grown vegetables and the Northampton Cup.

The children of the village came up with many creations, but the final winner of the Barbara Marsh Cup was Emily Kitchen. The Aunt Sally competition was won by Charlie (under 14s) and Josh Edwards (over 14s).

The skittles competition was won by John Woollacott and Pauline Gordon.

The Grand Raffle was a big hit again, with five lucky winners, including Jake Loosemore's first prize of a £100 Marks and Spencer's voucher.

Event spokesperson Gillian Broom said: "A big thank you to not only those who attended but to those who spent their time helping before, during and after the event as it would not be so successful without all the incredible contributions from the local community and from other parishes.

"Also, a big thank you to Dennis Retter for the use of his field for a car park for the afternoon."

High-vis gift to Hawkchurch school

■ VISIBLE: Pupils pose in their vests

CHILDREN at Hawkchurch Primary School have become more visible thanks to a donation of high-vis safety vests from developer C G Fry & Son Ltd.

Pupils and staff regularly attend church services and take nature walks around the village via country roads with no pavements.

Headteacher Sarah Stringer said: "We encourage the children to enjoy outdoor pursuits such as our popular 'welly walks'.

"There is always the worry, however, of safety of the staff and pupils on unmarked roads.

"When we saw that C G Fry & Son were building a new development on the site next to us, we approached them to see if they could help us keep safe and more visible. They didn't hesitate in providing high-vis vests for the entire school.

"It has saved the school a great deal of money and worry and we are extremely grateful to them."

C G Fry & Son sales and marketing manager Annabel Legg comments: "We were more than happy to be able to help the local school by providing mini high-vis vests and the pupils are absolutely delightful.

"They were all very excited when they donned their new safety-wear, which will make them much more visible when visiting St. John the Baptist and out on school trips."

Car treasure hunt

HAWKCHURCH Fete Committee's next fund raising event is a Car Treasure Hunt on Sunday, September 6th.

Cars will leave from the Village Hall car park between 2.30–3pm. Entry is £5.00 per car

The Treasure Hunt will return back to the Village Hall where you can enjoy a nice cup of tea and a slice of homemade cake.

Children's centre leads outdoor fun

LOCAL families joined staff from Honiton and Axe Valley Children's Centre last month for a fun session of outdoor activities in Enna Woods, near Offwell.

During the session, led by the Ecoexplorers, the children built a giant bird's nest and sat in it for a story, hunted for worms, made their own model birds and played hide and seek. A highlight was toasting marshmallows over the campfire.

"It's lovely to be able to explore nature with the children," said Claire Rogie, a local childminder.

Children's Centre Outreach Worker, Katherine Lister, added: "We're thrilled that so many families were able to come along today so their children had the opportunity to explore, use all their senses, and be physically active outdoors which is so beneficial to their health and learning".

The new term starts at the Children's Centre on September 7th and will include the usual groups such as Stay and Play and Bumps to Baby Buddies that are so popular with local families but there are lots of new activities to choose from too such as Toddler-tastic, a group specifically for those aged 12-23 months and Art Afternoons for the Under 5s with the Thelma Hulbert Gallery. For parents there's a new discussion group called Time to Talk, a breast-feeding support café, parenting courses and adult learning classes as well.

Police stop vehicles

ABOUT 50 vehicles were stopped as part of a joint operation between Dorset Police, Devon and Cornwall Police, Customs & Excise and DVSA on the A35 at Hunters Lodge, near Axminster.

Stop checks were made in the morning of Monday, August 17th, and a spokesperson for Dorset Police said: "Around fifty vehicles and drivers were inspected through the morning."

"Two tickets were issued by police to drivers using a mobile phone, one ticket for a vehicle with no MOT."

"Four immediate prohibitions were issued by DVSA to dangerous vehicles, and one driver was fined £560 by Customs and Excise for using red diesel in his vehicle on the road."

INSPIRING WOMEN

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

HONITON

TWENTY-FIVE members and two visitors formed six teams to pit their wits against each other in an evening quiz in August.

Quizmasters, Jo and Ed Moore, were brought in so that the WI committee could take part rather than produce the quiz themselves, as in the past. The winning team won a packet of chocolates each!

Other competitions of a decorated pebble and Flower of the Month were both won by Jean Donald (see her winning pebble on the Facebook page).

Events and happenings were up next, including a mystery trip to the House of Marbles at Bovey Tracey and Buckfast Abbey the next day, and a walk from Ottery St Mary to Tipton St John the day after. If walkers are to join a 'Jolly Good Jaunt', the East Devon Day Hospice Appeal on 5th October, they need to do some serious training! The crochet-and-chatter monthly get-togethers are well attended.

WI Day is the 16th September and this year will be the WI's 100th birthday. The branch celebration will consist of beauty treatments and dinner at Woodbury Park, and the next week a gathering at Offwell for a bring-and-share supper with five other local WIs to celebrate the Centenary in style.

Devon Federation of WIs will hold several celebrations, the nearest being a Garden Party at National Trust Killerton on 12th September when members of the Board of Trustees and Food, Crafts and Skills Sub-committee will prepare a sumptuous tea.

The next meeting in the Honiton Methodist Chapel will be on 20th October at 7.15pm when Nina Fenner is to talk on the Craft and Art of Bookbinding. Visitors will be welcome.

COLYTON

AUGUST was a Members' Meeting, with Shelagh Derwent as Acting President. The Carnival Coffee Morning raised £305 and members thanked those who had helped and contributed.

Members were reminded to record their names if they wished to attend the Autumn Council Meeting on 21 October. The Christmas Lunch will be held in Beer on 15 December and members were asked to vote for a venue.

It was announced that the Book Club, as from September, would be held in the Library on the first Wednesday in the month from 2-3 pm and there would be a charge, depending on the number attending.

Jacky Roberts Wake then demonstrated the decorating of hats in Edwardian style, plus appropriate dress and jewellery. She was presented with flowers and a gift.

Teas were served by Noelle Ingham and Joy Burley, who had also helped organise the members' meeting.

Joy Burley and Jean Hutton asked members for contributions to the WI stall in Petticoat Lane at the Carnival in September – jewellery, preserves, cakes welcome. Members will take part in the Carnival Procession, contact Jacky Roberts Wake if interested.

'Overwhelmed' by response to my retirement from Axminster station

■ I WOULD like, through your newspaper, to thank all those passengers who have so kindly contributed to my retirement from South West Trains at Axminster station last month.

I have been quite overwhelmed by the warmth and generosity of so many people who sent me cards and gifts. The send off by a group of "regulars" after my last shift, attended by both Axminster's mayor and deputy, was definitely the icing on the cake; I had no idea it was happening, so my colleagues at the station and the station café staff certainly know how to keep a secret!

I did enjoy my time at the station and have many happy memories. In many ways it was back to bas-sics as my first work experience on the railway was in the early 1960s at Bathampton station doing similar work; the main difference was that we had no electricity so the station was lit by gas lamp, and the waiting room and office by coal fire - when British Rail supplied a paraffin stove for the waiting room we all thought this was marvellous!

I'm looking forward to maintaining an active interest in public transport in my retirement, and will always stand up for the interests of the travelling public.

Once again, many thanks to everyone.

Bridport

Rotary raised £13,300 for good causes over last financial year

■ IN its fiscal year to June 30th 2015, Axminster Rotary raised and provided services towards a total of £13,330 that has been disbursed amongst 24 worthy causes.

By way of example, £1,200 was awarded to Children's Hospice SW, £1,000 to the Exeter Leukaemia Fund, £2,700 to ShelterBox, £1,200 to Foundation (Polio eradication), and £2,400 by way of Rotary produced personalised raffle tickets to local clubs, schools and societies to enable them to raise funds for their own good works.

Rotary disburses 100 per cent of all charitable funds it collects and raises during the year. It cannot, however, do any of this without the help and support that it receives from the local community. It is forever grateful for that support and on behalf of the president and members I should like to our express grateful thanks to all in the community whose consistent generosity has enabled it to carry on the good works that Rotary worldwide is renowned for.

Axminster Rotary club is a friendly and informal club where traditional values and humour are the order of the day. It runs a varied programme of speakers and events and visitors are always made welcome.

For further information please look up our website or give our secretary Nick Smy a ring on 01297 33388.

Astonishing that someone can be so intolerable of gulls

■ I REFER to your correspondent Michael Fanner's letter (Pulman's View From letters, August 26th).

It is astonishing that someone having chosen to live in Seaton, i.e. a seaside town, can find the behaviour of its natural residents, the gulls, so intolerable that he seeks to drum up support to cull them.

Those who make the effort to understand will know that nature is not quiet or tidy. They will see gulls, admittedly noisy and messy at nesting time, as living creatures feeding and protecting their young, rather than "things" to be got rid of.

Moreover, they will know that human activity, i.e.

Answers please on Seaton garden competition fiasco

■ DON'T hold your breath if, like me, you looked in the paper expecting to see that the Seaton Garden Competition judges or Seaton Town Council has given an apology or an answer following comments that were made regarding the fiasco concerning the competition.

Will those who spent their time, money and effort this year bother again? I do hope so, for like many other people I enjoyed the many gardens I saw.

So come on Seaton Town Council/judges, answers please!

BRENDA STOUT,

lazy attitudes towards food-waste disposal over decades, and eating-out culture has caused the imbalance and encouraged gulls to make nests in seaside towns.

Since wild birds are protected, and councils are taking what measures they can within the law, I would urge your correspondent to read the information which is readily available from EDDC in leaflet form or on their website: eastdevon.gov.uk/seagulls for advice, as most seaside town residents will have done.

Axminster roads are positively hazardous!

■ HURRAH! At last someone has written what everyone in Axminster feels about the horrendous traffic problems in Axminster (Pulman's View From letters, August 18th).

It seems that every couple of weeks there is another hold-up or delay somewhere in the town. It really is difficult even to walk in the town due to the traffic and crossing roads is positively hazardous.

I'm sure most of the residents are fed up with it and the effect on businesses has been voiced by Ian Styles. Will we really have to wait until a developer has the money to put in a relief road? Come on, Axminster Town Council - do we really want to drive business away from Axminster?

The Green House

THE GREEN HOUSE was opened in October 2014 by George and Richard who an opportunity in today's throw away culture to merge their passions for the environment and art by turning unwanted furniture and other items into recycled, preloved and repurposed pieces which have a new, fresh, vibrant and attractive look to them.

It is not only furniture that they turn their hand to though. Items such as knives, forks and spoons are transformed in their workspace from mundane everyday objects to funky, usable and practical light fittings. There is a treasure trove of jewellery to choose from, ranging from steam punk to recycled biscuit tins, all uniquely handcrafted and perfect as gifts. There is also a nice variety of clothing and fair trade items from around the world available.

Commissions form a big part of their working day. Customers can bring in their tired furniture to the shop to be revived into something new and funky or they can source items for their customers and make their own chalk paint and colour match to whatever the customer chooses.

The Mantra that The Green House has been built upon is best summed up by folk singer and environmental activist Peter Seeger, "if it can't be reduced, reused, repaired, rebuilt, refurbished, refinished, resold, recycled or composted then it should be restricted, redesigned or removed from production". This is reflected not only in the unique creations that are made in-house, but also in the items that are showcased in the shop by other local artists.

The Green House is an organic growth from George and Richard's other business, Playart; which delivers workshops to children using recycled materials to do quirky educational workshops. They work with playgroups, playschemes, local government, childminders and families, festivals, churches. They even do birthday parties!

Their hope is to educate people to use their imagination and reuse already existing products to create wonderful, practical items making the world a greener, brighter place.

Iminster Home Hardware

AS A store we sell a wide variety of stock, carrying over 15000 stock lines. One of our favourite stock lines is Kilner. Not only is it great for jam and preservative jars, it also opens up so many creative ideas. One is chalk painting the jars to create a shabby chic look. We sell chalk paint in lots of different colours from only £4.99. Our best sellers are the drinks dispensers; they are this summer's hottest Kilner product. 5 litre dispensers at just £12.99 have flown off the shelves this season. Drinks jars have also been very popular, our latest deal is 4 for £10. They're so many ideas which you can create at home; soap dispensers, cutlery holders, flower jars, photo frame and so much more. Come into store and you can find most things to recreate these ideas. Kilner is also a great gift idea.

HELP SAVE Seaton's

SEATON MARTIAL ARTS CENTRE had a very successful and enjoyable day at the inaugural Seaton Great Outdoors GO Festival on Sunday 23rd August. The kids absolutely loved it and the whole club was very pleased with the amount of support the general public showed towards their demonstrations. Some very positive feedback was received from people, which made all the hard work that went into organising it worthwhile. A few requests were also received from people wishing to take up one of the martial arts which is really good news because the club's main source of income is normally derived from their members.

However, at the moment the club are busy trying to raise additional funds to replace their floor, which is becoming unsafe in places due to wet rot: initial quotations suggest that the replacement floor will cost around £12,000 and they are unlikely to be able to fully fund this by themselves. However, even though a total of £2,500 has already been received from 3 generous benefactors, more is needed. It is for this reason that a number of fundraising activities are planned, with the main event being a 'Race Night' at Seaton Football Club on 26th September starting at 7:30pm. They are also seeking contributions from groups and individuals, in the hope that further donations will be forthcoming. Every little helps, so anything that can be spared, no matter how small, will be gratefully received as it will add to the total amount and will enable the work to proceed.

A non-profit making club, Seaton Martial Arts Centre was officially opened in 1987. As an important part of the community, it is used 7 days a week by over 90 members ranging in age from 4 to 77 years old from the East Devon and West Dorset areas. The club is a friendly welcoming place that covers several of the martial art disciplines including Ki Aikido, Shotokan Karate, Judo, Mixed Martial Arts, American Kenpo Karate and Success4Life, along with keep fit activities such as Kettlebells.

Martial arts are suitable for all ages and genders, but they are especially suitable for children as they teach discipline, respect, balance and co-ordination as well as the obvious benefits of self-defence. Together these improve confidence and encourage a positive attitude to life, which is why more than half of the members are children. However, anyone is welcome to join the club regardless of age or ability.

Many families get involved, and there are special rates where 2 or more members of the same family practise, even if they attend different classes. If you or someone you know has always wanted to be a black belt, but you are not sure which of the arts would suit you, just go along and try one out. The first 2 lessons are free so you can 'try before you buy'.

If you can help in any way or would just like some more information about the club, please contact Doug Rudge (Chairman) at Seaton Martial Arts Centre, Scalwell Lane, Seaton or email info@seatonmartialartscentre.com.

Ki Aikido

In the Art of Ki Aikido there is no aggression, tension or competition. Classes are suitable for all levels of fitness and may be practised equally by men and women of any size, age or ability. The purpose of the practise is primarily to learn to co-ordinate our mind and body, through enjoyable exercise but also how to defend oneself against a number of attacks.

Shotokan Karate

Shotokan Karate is a system of self defence and physical culture originally developed and refined in Okinawa and Japan. The word is formed from the Japanese words Kara (empty) and Te (hand), symbolising that its practitioners - Karateka - are unarmed, but use their hands and feet for blocking and striking. Training is conducted within an environment and code based on Japanese cultural practices

Judo

Judo was developed in Japan by Dr Jigoro Kano towards the end of the 19th century and has evolved from being a martial art into one of the world's most popular sports. Since its inclusion in the 1964 Olympic Games judo has progressed rapidly and is without doubt the world's most popular combat sport. Judo is however much more than a sport, it is also seen to be effective as an educational system in both physical and moral spheres.

Mixed Martial Arts

Mixed martial arts (MMA) is a full-contact combat sport that allows the use of both striking and grappling techniques, both standing and on the ground, from a variety of other combat sports and martial arts.

American Kenpo Karate

SGM Edmund K Parker was born in Honolulu. He grew up in the rugged environment of the Honolulu backstreet, where he developed a reputation as a fierce and fearless brawler. He studied Kenpo, one of the original Chinese styles of Kung Fu or Karate, under Professor William K S Chow. This became a foundation upon which he would later build one of the most creative and innovative styles in the world.

Don't miss Classic Clapton

CLASSIC CLAPTON the World's No1 Eric Clapton Tribute Band featuring front-man Mike Hall will be making a welcome return to Lyme Regis in September as part of their 30th Anniversary Tour.

This will be Classic Clapton's second appearance at The Marine Theatre. Their first concert in 2013 sold out. Fans are advised to book early.

The band will perform all of Clapton's classic songs including Wonderful Tonight, Tears in Heaven, Crossroads, I Shot The Sheriff, Cocaine, Lay Down Sally and of course Layla! There will even be an “UNPLUGGED” segment.

The band was formed in 1985 in Newcastle upon Tyne long before the term “tribute band” was invented, and named themselves “After Midnight” after Eric Clapton's first solo hit. In guitar/vocalist Mike Hall, they have a front man who not only looks like Eric, he sings and plays guitar like him too!

In 1999, Mike won a national look-alike competition held at Madam Tussauds in London. Mike has met Slowhand twice, and even received a message of encouragement from the guitar maestro (written on a Concorde menu).

Classic Clapton comprises four excellent musicians:- Mike Hall (lead vocals/guitar), Paul Warren (keyboards/ backing vocals), Danny Davison (drums) and Dave Robson (bass guitar/backing vocals). Dave is a former member of chart band Geordie. In fact he was with them at the time Brian Johnson left to join AC/DC. Mike, Dave & Danny are all original members of Classic Clapton. Paul joined in 2007.

The band have released three albums. Firstly “The Music Of Eric Clapton” contains brilliant cover-versions of 17 Clapton Classics. Their second is a live double CD “Classic Clapton Unplugged” recorded at Belfast Waterfront Hall. In 2005 they released their third album “Classic Cream” – featuring 20 songs made famous by the sixties supergroup. All three albums will be available at Lyme Regis.

Although Mike Hall is not quite as old as Eric, he is thinking of retiring or at least taking a long break after 2015, so if their fans definitely want to see Classic Clapton at least one more time, it is recommended that they get tickets for one of their 2015 shows. This could be the last time they play in Lyme Regis.

Classic Clapton will be performing at The Marine Theatre, Church Street, Lyme Regis on Friday 11 September. Doors open at 7.30pm. Band on stage at 8pm. Tickets priced £13.50, concessions £12 (with £1 off for theatre friends) are available from the box office - Tel: 01297 442138. www.marinetheatre.com

Testudo Musical Players promise a spectacular evening's entertainment with Sister Act

TESTUDO MUSICAL PLAYER'S forthcoming show 'Sister Act' is being staged at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall, from Wednesday 16th to Saturday, September 19th at 7.30pm each night. Nothing has been spared to make this a spectacular evening's entertainment, worthy of a professional stage!

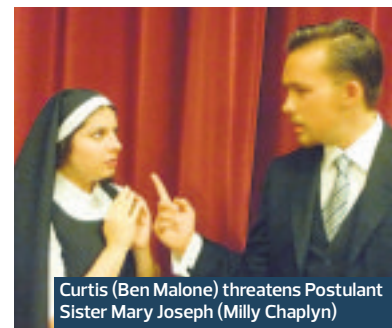

This exceptionally lively, humorous script and score will have you laughing, singing and itching to get out of your seat and join in! To quote Deloris (Lauren Weber) it will be "Fabulous Baby"!

Curtis (Ben Malone) and his gang provide drama and comedy as do the various nuns as they journey into a new and exciting world under the influence of their new choir master Deloris. Young postulant, Sister Mary Joseph (Milly Chaplyn) questions her nun's life when she sings 'The life I never led'.

As Mother Superior (Vanessa Cross) sings ... "I've got priests doing moves like Travolta, a communion that's somehow risqué" which just about sums up this award winning show!

Tickets are eagerly being snapped up already so make sure you book yours today from the Box Office: 01297 625699

Tickets on sale for Classics Galore!

TICKETS have gone on sale for this year's Classics Galore! concert at the University of Exeter Great Hall on Saturday, November 14 and the best seats are selling fast.

The musical extravaganza, which features the Ottery St Mary Choral Society and the South West Comms Band from Lymington, includes familiar and uplifting themes with a Last Night of the Proms style finale.

The event has been held every two years since 2007 and has raised £50,000 for local cancer charity FORCE.

The show regularly attracts sell-out crowds of more than a thousand and spaces in the gallery have nearly all been snapped up already with only 25 of the £18 seats remaining.

Tickets for the auditorium are priced at £16 and £14 and are available from Exeter Visitor Information and Tickets (EVIT) at Dix's Field - 01392 665885 or evit@exeter.gov.uk

"Classics Galore! concerts are always popular and clearly stamped in the Exeter entertainment diary for many years to come. It's too good to miss so make that call and book your seats today for a magical evening of uplifting music and song. Enjoy the music and support the cause," said organising committee chairman Annie Bassett.

There will be free shuttle buses for concert-goers running from the university car parks and, for the first time, pre-concert meals will be available.

The shuttles will operate from 5-11pm between campus car parks A and B and the Great Hall. The University's Terrace Restaurant will open at 5.30pm. There is no need to pre-book the buses or pre-order food.

Retired policeman Dick Passmore and his wife, Posy, came up with the idea of a concert to repay FORCE for the ongoing support they have received after he was diagnosed with bowel cancer in 2000.

His battle continues and so does his passion for music and FORCE, which works to support anyone locally affected by cancer and is currently investigating locations for an outreach service in East Devon.

Malcolm Matthews from Tip-ton St John will again be the concert's musical director, working with 50 top musicians from Exeter and East Devon who have been specially selected to form the Classics Galore! Symphony Orchestra.

The South West Comms Band and Ottery St Mary Choral Society will also be on stage alongside members of St David's Players. Popular soprano Penny Daw is back to perform as the concert's only soloist.

The programme's mix of popular and easily recognisable tunes from showstoppers to traditional classical music will this year feature a Gilbert and Sullivan section and excerpts from My Fair Lady and Verdi's opera Aida plus a traditional finale including Land of Hope and Glory and Rule Britannia that's guaranteed to get the audience singing along.

What's Happening at Ilminster Arts Centre this September

SUMMER may be drawing to a close, but at Ilminster Arts Centre it's all systems go as our new season of events gets underway.

Throughout September our exhibition celebrates 50 years of Artists 303, a group of contemporary artists that was founded right here in Ilminster in 1965. The show unites top-quality work in a range of media by past and present members. Meet the artists at a special preview event on Monday, September 7th, 5-7pm. All are welcome.

Our musical harvest this September is a rich one too, including two Concerts in the West, two jazz gigs and an evening of Spanish guitar music in aid of the Samaritans. Led by Oscar Perks on violin, The Perks Ensemble will be playing a programme of Mozart, Francaix and Beethoven on Friday 4th, while on Friday 18th award-winning sax player Huw Wiggin takes to the stage with pianist James Sherlock, to present a programme that ranges from Bach to Bernstein. Top jazz trumpeter Steve Waterman teams up with the Neil Burns Trio on Friday 11th, for an evening of mainstream jazz. On Friday 25th we welcome a new jazz quartet led by brilliant saxophonist Ian Ellis and featuring Arts Centre regular Craig Milverton on piano.

For hands-on inspiration, our programme of art workshops is hard to beat, whether you are interested in modelling in clay (Monday mornings), chatting about the latest book with the Readers' Group (September 11th), mastering the basics of guitar (12th), getting creative with wool (Knitting/Crochet (17th), Felting (18th) or rustling up a rag rug (25th). 'Bags of Fun' a one-day workshop led by quilting expert k3n is back by popular demand, on Tuesday 8th - come and learn the tricks of the trade involved in making a bespoke handbag.

The younger generation haven't been left out of the fun either, our brand new programme of children's art workshop starts on September 19th. Running monthly on Saturday mornings 'Art Chest' is led by highly experienced art tutor Belinda Ireland, and will introduce budding young artists to a range of different media, using works in our exhibitions as a starting point for their own creations.

Other events to look out for are a Valuation Morning on September 10th when the experts from Bearnas, Hampton and Littlewood of Exeter will be 'in the house' offering free valuations on your treasured items. On Saturday 26th clap your hands and stamp your feet at our new 'Flamenco for Beginners' workshop. Come along and find out if Flamenco is for you - it's more fun than going to the gym!

The Tin Ring with Zdenka Fantlova

ZDENKA Fantlova, one of the few living eye-witnesses to the horror of the Holocaust, visits Exeter Northcott Theatre to tell the extraordinary story of how when she was just seventeen years old a simple tin ring made for her by her boyfriend became central to her will to live. She survived six concentration camps, lost her entire family and endured unimaginable horrors.

Now 92, Zdenka Fantlova is determined to tell her inspiring story of great love, and of what happened in the Holocaust, to as many people as possible.

Zdenka, a Jew from former Czechoslovakia, grew up with a love of music, learning to play the piano and being taken to concerts and the theatre. In 1942 she was transported to Terezín where her boyfriend, Arno, gave her the tin ring that would, many years later, provide the title for her moving memoir.

Zdenka Fantlova will tell her story, 'The Tin Ring' at Exeter Northcott Theatre on Thursday, September 10th.

Tickets are £18 (concessions £2 off), and the show is suitable for ages 14+. For more details or to book visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk

The Perks Ensemble to perform for Concerts in the West

The Perks Ensemble has an irresistible charm that is due in no small measure to the fact that its three energetic and committed founding members all just happen to be related. During the summer months the group's vibrant members will be performing at a number of venues in France and the UK, including Exeter, Bridport, Ilminster and Shute, for Concerts in the West.

This dynamic chamber ensemble was created in 2012 by two brothers – Oscar and Elliott Perks – and their sister Ursula. Together they have earned a highly deserved reputation for playing exciting performances of both their own arrangements as well as chamber music classics.

Oscar Perks plays both violin and viola and has already experienced a varied career performing at many leading London venues, including Wigmore Hall, Barbican, Royal Festival Hall and Kings Place, as well as live on Radio Three. He has a packed programme of work that involves him as second violinist of the Dante Quartet, as well as assistant violin teacher at the Yehudi Menuhin School. Oscar started playing violin at the age of five and was awarded a place at the Yehudi Menuhin School. He went on to read music at Cambridge where he led the University Chamber Orchestra and was invited to perform with the Endellion String Quartet. At the Royal College, he gained his Masters with distinction.

Elliott Perks

Oscar's composition The Twin Towers (2001) for string quartet also won the BBC Guardian young composer competition and was premiered at the Wigmore Hall.

Elliott Perks is a London based freelance viola player who also runs the Yehudi Menuhin School's 'Chance to Play' outreach programme. He performs regularly with the Perks Ensemble, as well as a soloist, chamber musician and orchestral player. He originally studied violin at the Yehudi Menuhin School, where he was awarded a place in 2001, however in 2008, he switched to viola. Elliott was a foundation scholar at the Royal College of Music.

Cellist Reinoud Ford studied with Louise Hopkins at the Yehudi Menuhin School before graduating with First Class Honours from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama (2007), where he also completed a Masters (2009). As a student at the Guildhall, he won the Guilhermina Suggia Award (2004), the Flame Competition in Paris (2006) and became a finalist in the Royal Over Seas League (2006). Reinoud continues to be in demand as a soloist and recent performance highlights include recitals in the Villa Borghese, Rome (2013) and for the diplomatic community in Doha, Qatar (2011) as well as other concertos with London-based orchestras (Jupiter Chamber Orchestra, Hounslow Symphony Orchestra). Reinoud performs, tours and composes with singer-songwriter Keaton Henson.

The Perks Ensemble will play the following dates:

■ Thursday, September 3rd at 7.30pm, at St Stephen's, High Street, Exeter. Tickets £15 by calling 01392 667080, or from Exeter Phoenix.

Full programme of live music at Chardstock Street Fayre

AFTER a break of two years, Chardstock Street Fayre returns this Saturday, September 5th, and promises to be even bigger and better than ever.

Organised in conjunction with Chardstock Vintage Tractor and Machinery Club, and St Andrews Church there will be displays of vintage tractors, stationary engines, classic & competition cars and motorbikes, various other displays, street entertainment, dog show, stalls, competitions, exhibitions, food, live music and much, much more.

This year, the fayre will feature a full programme of live music, kicking off at 12.30pm, and culminating in headliners Livewired, with their set beginning at 9.30pm.

The Maggie Reeday Trio will play from 12.30pm-2pm. A real treat for lovers of jazz, this will be a relaxed lunchtime set of soulful standards by Maggie Reeday and her trio. Maggie is one of the country's finest interpreters of the great American songbook, and her smoky voice lends itself beautifully to heartfelt ballads and blues.

After starting her musical career as the singer with an Exeter band, Maggie has gone on to work in both TV and radio and shared stages with some of the greatest international musicians, including Scott Hamilton, Mark Nightingale, Dave Green and Digby Fairweather.

From 2.30pm-4.30pm a Howl Open Mic session with Angelina will take place, and is open to everyone! In another first for the Fayre, organisers are opening up the stage to anyone who has a song or two they'd like to sing, a tune they'd like to play or poem they'd like to perform, with help from Angelina Westdorp of Howl Open Mic.

Anyone who has visited Howl's many 'open mic' evenings in the area, often led by founder Elijah Wolf, will know that they create an enthusiastic and encouraging atmosphere where any performer – whatever their experience or level of ability – can feel welcomed and comfortable to perform. Come and have a go!

One of the most popular bands at June's Summer of Love beer, cider and music festival in Chardstock, The Muzax is a new four-piece rock outfit combines the talents of Simon Douglass (vocals & guitar), Dave Wicken (guitar), Jon Binks (bass) and Nigel Eastick (drums), and the group take to the stage from 5-6.30pm.

Well-known in the area, Simon and Dave were former bandmates of the late Ray Smith – a former Chardstock Street Fayre vice-chairman – in Annoying the Neighbours. Ray performed with them at the last Street Fayre in 2013, and we're delighted to see Simon and Dave back playing again this year.

Formed as an acoustic duo here in Chardstock by singer Deb Geraghty and guitarist Mick Whitworth, The Window Trees blossomed with the addition of bassist/guitarist David Billing and ace drummer Kevin Andrews.

With her 'boys' adding harmonies to Deb's stunning vocals, The Window Trees are entertaining audiences at venues including River Cottage Canteen in Axminster, where they are the resident band, with sets ranging from soulful acoustic pop and rock (James Taylor, KT Tunstall, Eddi Reader) to full-on country-rock (Steve Earle, Ryan Adams).

The four-piece will also be playing dates at River Cottage's Plymouth Canteen this autumn.

Get your dancing shoes on as high-energy rockers Livewired close out Chardstock Street Fayre.

Formed from the roots of well-known local band Crosswired, the five-piece have been spicing up events ranging from Axminster Beer Festival to the Yeovilton Air Day after-party, with a set stretching from The Killers to ACDC, Guns 'n' Roses, Kaiser Chiefs, Prince and Kings of Leon.

Livewired are Paul Toop (lead singer), Richard Osborne (lead guitar/vocals), Andy Stagg (lead guitar/vocals), Harry Carpenter (drums) and Nick Osborne (bass).

If you haven't heard them before you're in for a treat.

Between acts there will be an appearance by The Chardstock Morris Prancers, belly dancing from 'Eastern Promise' and amazing feats of magic by the fantastic Jack Ward.

All of this live entertainment will take place at The George Inn in Chardstock by kind permission of Dominic Dixon, whose continued support is greatly appreciated.

More than 1,100 miles on a single tank

ŠKODA is set to add to its acclaimed GreenLine range with its most advanced and efficient model to date – the new Superb GreenLine. The latest addition to the recently-launched Superb range takes fuel economy and emissions to a new level, with a predicted combined consumption figure of 76.4mpg and CO2 emissions of just 96g/km for the Hatch and 97g/km for the Estate. These provide the new Superb GreenLine with a potential range of more than 1,100 miles on just one tank of fuel – comfortably enough to drive from Milton Keynes to Barcelona.

The new Superb GreenLine will be unveiled to the public at next month's Frankfurt Motor Show and will be available in the UK later this year. The newcomer – which is the most fuel-efficient and cleanest Superb ever built – is powered by a 1.6-litre four-cylinder diesel engine that develops 120PS and incorporates a host of advanced fuel-saving technologies and engineering features. As with all other Superb models, the GreenLine is equipped with start-stop ignition and brake energy recovery as standard. In addition, both Superb GreenLine models feature longer gear ratios, SCR (Selective Catalytic Reduction) and 16-inch reduced rolling resistance tyres.

To meet strict European emission standards, the Superb utilises two exhaust gas treatment units: an oxidation catalytic converter and a diesel particulate filter. Nitrogen oxide emissions are reduced through the Superb GreenLine's SCR system, using the reducing agent AdBlue. This synthetically manufactured solution, 32.5% high-purity urea in demineralised water, treats the diesel exhaust gases, reducing nitrogen oxide and saving fuel.

To further improve efficiency, the Superb GreenLine has been engineered with a unique aerodynamic package. The chassis sits 15mm lower than the standard Superb, while both the Hatchback and Estate models incorporate tailgate and roof spoilers to efficiently channel air around the rear of the car. As a result of these subtle additions and revisions, both models have lower drag coefficients than the standard models (0.263 Hatch, 0.275 Estate).

ŠKODA's commitment to developing highly efficient, eco-friendly cars remains as strong as ever. All ŠKODA models are now available with the latest EU6 compliant petrol and diesel engines. Further details about the Superb GreenLine, including UK specification and prices, will be announced closer to the launch later this year.

Renault unveils the new Talisman Estate

▲ Renault Talisman Estate

RENAULT has taken the wraps off the Talisman Estate which will stand alongside the model's saloon version that was revealed on 6 July. This new large estate car delivers the same technological features as the saloon.

The Renault Talisman Estate will go on sale in Europe during the first half of 2016. There are no current plans for the car to be produced in Right Hand Drive or sold in the UK.

The Talisman Estate: Renault's new large estate

Following the unveil of the saloon version of the Talisman on 6 July, Renault has today taken the wraps off the new Talisman Estate. The D segment (saloons and estates coma long lip spoiler. The C-pillar and chrome-bordered side windows contribute to the impression of finesse and sleekness. The slope of the rear window adds a dynamic touch without detracting from boot space.

Easy to load

Thanks to the powered tailgate – which is activated simply by waving your foot underneath the rear bumper – the boot boasts hands-free opening and closing to facilitate loading.

The Talisman Estate offers 572dm3 (VDA) of load space up to the parcel shelf and a maximum load length of 1,116mm. With the rear seats in the folded position, that figure increases to 2,010mm, equating to a volume of almost 1,700dm3 (VDA).

The secret to well-being: a spacious, cabin and welcoming, comfortable seats

Designed with the well-being of the driver and passengers in mind, the Renault Talisman Estate – just like the saloon version – is a class leader in terms of interior space. The Estate version additionally benefits from 30mm extra headroom at the rear, extending it to 886mm.

The Talisman Estate incorporates technologies designed to enhance driving enjoyment and traveling comfort

Multi-Sense technology combines four-wheel steering with active damping

For the first time in its segment, the Renault Talisman Estate – just like its saloon sibling – mates the 4Control system to active damping. Around town, the 4Control chassis endows the Talisman Estate with extraordinary agility. Its cornering stability and dexterity when evasive action is required position the new Renault in a class of its own when it comes to confidence and driving comfort.

Renault's Multi-Sense technology allows the driving experience to be personalised, with four pre-programmed settings ('Comfort', 'Sport', 'Neutral' and 'Eco'), plus a fully configurable 'Perso' mode.

The Talisman Estate is capable of changing its personality in the blink of an eye thanks to a 'shortcut' button that enables the driver to switch from the 'Comfort' to 'Sport' mode, and vice-versa, for example, in just two clicks. Meanwhile, the Talisman's architecture – which features a lowered centre of gravity and a driving position close to the road – means the Multi-Sense system's benefits can be enjoyed even more fully, especially when the particularly dynamic 'Sport' mode is selected. It is almost as though drivers are able to choose from several cars rolled into one. Whether they are in the mood for a spirited, responsive ride or a smooth, comfortable and refined journey, the choice is theirs – and immediate.

At the same time, the in-car ambience is adjusted to match by adapting the colour of the interior lighting (blue, red, sepia, green or purple), the presentation and colour of the dashboard information display and the engine sound.

Bad drivers beware! You're half as attractive as motorists with good skills behind the wheel

BAD driving significantly reduces levels of attractiveness in potential partners, with women finding it particularly off-putting, found the first ever scientific study into driving skills and desirability conducted by the Institute of Advanced Motorists (IAM).

Finally answering the long-debated question about whether poor driving skills put a dampener on romance, the experiment found bad drivers to be 50% less attractive than motorists with good skills.

The IAM teamed up with prominent behavioural psychologist Jo Hemmings for the study. Candidates were shown videos of both good and bad driving whilst being tested for their levels of attraction towards the driver using pulse rate, pupil dilation, blink rate and body language.

Attractiveness dropped from 4.8 to 2.8 in women proving the most significant reduction, with 84% of candidates reporting more negative feelings towards the driver after experiencing their incompetence on the road.

The pulse rate of 60% of female candidates increased whilst watching bad driving manoeuvres, with a 20% increase for a third indicating a significant rise in stress levels.

And it's the aggressive and confrontational manoeuvres that were found to be most unattractive to women – with road rage, illegal overtaking and tailgating topping a list of gaffes that provoke the strongest negative reactions.

In contrast, reactions in men were found to be less significant, with just over a quarter (28%) reporting a dislike for the driver after seeing them behind the wheel.

Body language indicators showed that for men, instead of stress, frustration was the overwhelming response. Candidates were found to frown, become agitated and shift position as they watched videos of parking, turning the car around or other examples of distracted or pre-occupied behaviours.

Behavioural psychologist Jo Hemmings explains: "There is no doubt that across the board most candidates, and nearly all of the women, found bad driving to be a turn-off. However, it's interesting to look at the reactions of different genders. Some male reactions to bad driving included laughter and amusement, indicating that men have a less mature emotional response to bad driving than women who instead furrowed their brows and shook their heads."

The experiment follows independent research by the IAM which uncovered bad driving as one of the UK's biggest first date turn-offs. Road rage was the worst first-date faux pas for almost half (46%) of Brits, whilst a similar number say texting at the wheel leaves them wanting to end a date then and there.

A further one in 10 (11%) are irritated by someone who takes 15 minutes to park, whilst an eighth of Brits (13%) find overly cautious drivers who go under the speed limit off-putting.

Jo Hemmings continued: "Overall the experiment supports the hypothesis that bad driving elicits strong instinctive responses, with a correlated effect on levels of desire. However, it's evident that women have a stronger negative reaction to bad driving than men, and find bad drivers considerably less attractive as a result."

The IAM's chief executive, Sarah Sillars said: "The results from the survey picked our interest, so we enlisted Jo and a team of scientists to put the science behind the theory. Bad driving not only has an impact on the safety of our roads, but can also affect your relationships. Being able to manoeuvre properly and drive carefully should be much higher up on people's priorities."

Singles can improve their driving skills – and chances of romance – by signing up for a free IAM driving assessment worth £39 at iam.org.uk/lovedriving. See if you can improve your 'pulling' power today.

Get in the driving spirit, but don't let the spirit get into you

THIS week's tips from the IAM's head of driving standards, Peter Rodger are all about avoiding the temptations of drink-driving this summer. Here are Peter's top tips to ensure your safety is never compromised.

If you've already had a couple of drinks, don't try to calculate whether or not you're over the limit, as any amount of alcohol is hazardous if you're driving. If you have no other choice but to drive, simply avoid drinking completely.

If you know you're going to have some alcohol, ask someone else to drive you to your destination, or arrange for a taxi. The same applies for when you are leaving – not having your car there will mean you're not tempted to drive back. Make sure you refuse a lift from anyone that has been drinking too.

If you drank the night before, you may still be over the legal limit the following day. If you're involved in a collision that's not your fault but are the driver, you may still get caught by the police when you are breathalysed. Bear this in mind and don't risk it – arrange for alternative travel plans the next morning.

Don't feel pressured to drink especially if you don't really want one.

Don't be influenced by others around you, you will only end up putting your licence and liberty at stake.

Some crashes involve pedestrians who have been drinking and drivers who haven't. Look out for pedestrians walking late at night and be prepared for them to step out without looking your way.

Remember that the legal limit in England and Wales is 80mg of alcohol per 100ml of blood, while the limit in Scotland is 50mg of alcohol per 100ml of blood. Bear in mind these limits are only a guide as everyone's body reacts differently – depending on your weight, height and metabolism you may still be over the legal limit even if you have consumed less than the stated amount.

Driving under the influence can lead to three months' imprisonment, up to £2,500 fine and a compulsory driving ban across the UK.

Peter said: "There has been enough education about drink-driving for no-one to claim 'I didn't know'. Quite simply you are in no condition to handle a motor vehicle or bike with any amount of alcohol on your system – and you could wreck someone else's life. It's very simple: drinking and driving don't belong together."

Ronchi back in Taunton

SOMERSET CCC

NEW Zealand wicketkeeper Luke Ronchi has returned to the County Ground and is set to make his County Championship debut for Somerset in the four day game against Yorkshire which starts today.

Ronchi, who played five NatWest T20 Blast matches earlier in the season, had expressed an interest in returning to Taunton in the future but hadn't expected to so quickly.

"It's great to be back at the County Ground but I have to say that I didn't expect to be back here quite so soon.

"I had some good fun when I was here before and now I'm looking forward to being able to hopefully help the team out in the last month of the season.

"It was a very nice surprise to get a text message from Matt Maynard (Director of Cricket for Somerset) to ask if I would like to come back to Taunton and I hope I can help out as much as possible and help get some wins on the board."

Ronchi replaces Abdur Rehman as Somerset's overseas player for the remainder of the 2015 season and is slated to make his first appearance for the county in their crucial championship match at Headingley, a ground he has fond memories of.

"The one time that I have played there was good and I made 88 for New Zealand against England so it would be nice to replicate that.

"I have never played championship cricket here in England and it is always something that I have dreamt about doing, so to be given the chance is pretty cool. Hopefully I can go out and perform and help."

Ronchi added: "The fans are something special and they have made me feel really welcome.

"They always want the side to do well and win so it's great to have that sort of backing."

Weather can't stop Honiton finals day

HONITON with Julie Grant

RAIN couldn't stop all the play! Honiton Bowling Club finals day ended with a thunderstorm but the evening BBQ and entertainment went ahead as planned and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The rain did delay one day's bowling but did not hinder some excellent play and close fought games often dependent on the last few woods.

The finals results were: Mens singles - winner, Trevor Pipe; finalist, Kieran Daniels. Ladies singles - winner, Sue Evans; finalist, Shirley Hiscocks; Two Wood singles - winner, Carole Binmore; finalist, Sue Evans.

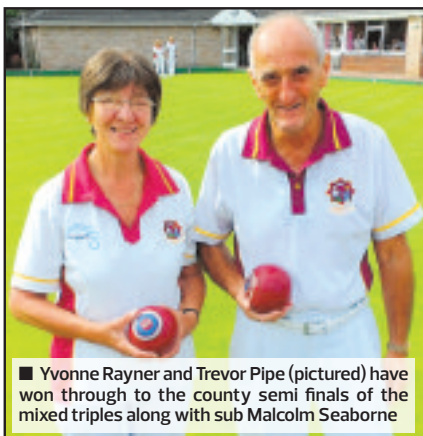

Open Handicap singles - winner, Kieran Daniels; finalist, Sue Evans; Men's drawn pairs - winners, Barrie Singleton, Kieran Daniels; finalists - Gerry Stafrace, Scott Eveleigh.

Open singles - winner, Kieran Daniels; finalist, Gerry Stafrace. Ladies drawn pairs - winners, Sarah Duffin, Sue Evans; finalists, Yvonne Williams, Brenda Harris.

Open pairs - winners, Yvonne Rayner, Trevor Pipe; finalists, Kieran Daniels, Scott Eveleigh. Ladies Handicap - winner, Sue Evans; finalist, Yvonne Rayner.

Good news for the men's Over 60 A team who won their away game against Okehampton securing eight points and hoping the last game will save them from relegation. Not so fortunate for the TCL team who lost at Hemyock 62-78.

SEATON with Maria Johnson

AS WE are coming toward the end of August, the busy bowling season appears to be slowing down.

The week started strongly for Seaton with a convincing win for the two rinks who travelled to Morchard Bishop. The afternoon was chilly but dry enabling us to win 41-27; top rink was L. Hurley-Smith, A. Mayhew and L. Stone.

On Wednesday the Over 60s C team played Pines Gardens. Seaton gained six points; best rink was D. Ridd, G. Thomas and P. Grigg.

The Over 60s A team clinched the Division Two championship by defeating Okehampton B 52-22, picking up the maximum eight points. Top rink was D. Ford, K. Shean and R. Woolland.

On Friday Seaton played away at Feniton. They had a successful afternoon, winning on four out of the six rinks. The result was 122 - 63; top rink of the day was P. Newton, D. Ridd, B. Scull and L. Stone with a score of 35-13.

The Finals Weekend of internal competitions starts off on Friday, September 4th.

FENITON with Roger Smith

FENITON'S hopes of success in the Two Counties League were finally dashed by a 46-93 home defeat to Culm Vale.

In the Over 60s league, the A team drew with Culm Vale C 34-34. The winning rink was M Evans, R North and J Skinner 19-15. The B team suffered a calamitous defeat at home to bottom of the table Chagford by 16-55.

The Ladies recorded another good win in the NBTL over Heavitree by 34-30. The winning rink was D Bowden, A Pritchard and J Smith 18-11.

The mixed team entertained Seaton and were defeated by 63-122. The only winning rink was M Evans, V Jones, J Livings and I Veitch 15-14.

After a weekend of intensive rivalry in the Club Three Bowls Pairs competition, in a variety of weather conditions, Michael Chipperfield and Christine Granger emerged victorious over David Sanders and Di Bowden in an extremely close match, by 16-15.

WESSEX MIXED FRIENDLY CUP FINAL

with Mike Rowe

On Sunday, August 23rd Severalls Jubilee Bowls Club were the hosts for the final of the Wessex Mixed Friendly Cup Final played between teams from Shepton Mallet BC and Westlands BC.

The match was in doubt right up to the start due to the heavy rain in the morning, but fortunately the sun came out before the start and remained for the whole match.

It was a closely fought contest with scores very even until the final few ends when Shepton grabbed the initiative and finally ran out winners by 80 shots to 60.

After the match the members of Severalls provided 49 meals for the visiting players and their guests.

FOURTEEN fished in round nine of the Summer League at Dillington Pond on a very moist Sunday, writes JAMIE RICH.

The three main contenders in the league filled the top three places in the match. Stuart Alford had the top weight on the day with a nice catch of bream and skimmers weighing 20lb 10oz on the groundbait feeder from peg 6. Frank Woodard was second with a similar catch weighing 17lb 10z from peg 20 and Graham Field was third with over 260 small fish for 11lb 9oz from peg 2.

After nine matches and dropping the two worst results, Graham Field leads with 10 points, followed by Stuart Alford on 11 and Frank Woodard on 12, so it's very tight going into the last match which is on Sunday, September 13th and the draw is at the Royal Oak between 8.30 and 9pm.

Sections: A - Steve Parker (Ilton) 8lb 2oz; B - Ashley Tomkins (Tackleuk) 9lb 12oz.

running round-up

CHARD

CRRs were depleted in numbers with the holiday season upon us were off in smaller numbers to cover more miles. Heading off over the weekend of August 22-23rd, two intrepid runners headed off to Heaton Heath, near Poole, for the White Star Running 'Bad Cow' Marathon weekend.

Setting off on the Saturday morning with the sun overhead, Bernie Genge and Paul Masters hit the trails of this eight lap marathon.

With the heat building as the runner covered this mix of heathland, estuary, woods and open field, Paul started to fall behind whilst Bernie strode forward loving the warmer conditions. An additional water stop added to the route mid way through the running also heated up with Bernie crossing the line first for CRRs in 16th/110 (03h 57m 11sec); Masters picking up his pace again pushed hard for 28th/110 (04h 11m 59s).

With the weather predicted to be changing over the next 24 hours it was no surprise to wake up to heavy rain and softer going underfoot. Masters and Genge stepped up to the line for their second marathon of the weekend but in totally different conditions.

Paul was setting the pace for CRRs enjoying the cooler condition, Bernie - on his 96th marathon - was keeping good pace and with the ever changing conditions this was going to be close between the CRRs. The latter laps of the race saw the temperature rise and a flagging Masters was steadily being caught by Genge.

On the eighth lap it was getting tighter and as good club mates both raced up to the line in 17th and 18th respectively in a time of 4h 07m 01s - a great double, taking Bernie closer to his 100th marathon which will be ran at next year's local Taunton Marathon.

Whilst CRRs were off running in all conditions, Nina Wagstaff set off to the Cotswold Classic Triathlon to pit herself against a tough field of swimmers, cyclists and runners over a distance of a 2k swim, 56 mile cycle then a 13 mile and managed an incredible 05h 07m 19s finishing 254/646 in virtual storm conditions.

Bringing the CRRs' calendar up to date was Matt Baker and Wayne Loveridge who headed off to do battle at the Battle of Sedgemoor 10k. This is a fast, flattish road race around the lanes of Langport, this being round 14 of the Somerset Series this race attracted over 300 runners with a top class field.

Heading off for CRRs was Wayne Loveridge who loving the 10k race distance was pushing to the front of the pack from the off. Keeping the front runners in sight Wayne pushed to the end crossing the line in 10th/320 (35m 59s).

Keeping up his excellent run of 10k races was next CRR Matt Baker who set off with the pack to run a great race keeping a firm commitment to the finish line crossing in a great time of 57m 47s a great performance.

HONITON

HONITON Running Club members turned out in force on Saturday, August 22nd for the Jurassic Coast 10km Race.

The course included a range of terrains involving public footpaths, quiet rural roads and coast paths with amazing coastal views. The weather finally was on our side as the sun shone on all runners positioned ready at the start line on the seaford at Budeleigh Salterton.

First home for Honiton was Karl Hodson positioned 8th in a time of 40 minutes 56 seconds - a great race, with other club members crossing the line in quick succession including Tom Borner who finished 28th in 45:28.

Steve Selley finished in 34th place in 46.04. Jim Hill, possibly the oldest competitor, followed in 86th place in 54:07 and then came the ladies of the club with Frances McMahon, the first of the bunch, still with a spring in her step passing through the finish line one place and nine seconds behind Jim.

She was followed by Paula Ferris, three places later in 54.40. Both ladies are fairly new to the club and felt rightly proud with their performances claiming under the hour milestone as did Sharon Wells who was next back coming 127th in 57:51.

Dawn Peek and Asilah Jarrald claimed the same time of 1:12.06 crossing the line together in 215th place. Katie Sher-Jan ran a first race as new Honiton club member with a very respectable time of 1:16.58 and 239th place despite the gradients and the hot conditions.

The race was won by Howard Bailey in a time of 38.04 and there were 254 finishers. Many thanks to all the race organisers, marshals and volunteers who were involved in the event and on the day. The event ran very smoothly with all runners looking as colourful as the medals they had won. All monies raised will be donated to Force Cancer Charity.

Seniors Open

THERE were many old friends among the 156 players representing 23 clubs from four counties who contested the annual inter-club.

The Henry Young Salver is held in Stableford format. Blessed with fine weather, everyone enjoyed a very competitive day organised by the 2014 Seniors' Captain, Bill Eaton. The Captains' Charity, the Baton, was boosted – the Ladies' section ran a raffle which raised over £320 and the popular 11th tee refreshment hut raised over £95.

The overall winners were Keith Wyman, M Donovan and D Barker from Weymouth. The winning home team were Eric Short, Robin Mitchel and Colin Hughes. The next winning away team were T. Berry, T. Essary and P. Willcox from Crediton.

Juniors

DCGU U14 Scratch Order of Merit

HAYDON McCance and Max Neild are both playing in great form, both being in the top half of the Junior Scratch Order of Merit.

DCGU U16 Scratch Order of Merit

BEN Phillips is also playing in great form, recently reducing his handicap further – he is now playing off 8.

He recently played in a Boys' Scratch Championship on the Saunton West course. He not only attained 4th place in the U16s but also achieved 11th place overall.

Honiton Professional James Pickard wins

at Tavistock's 125th Anniversary Pro-AM

HONITON Professional James Pickard won the Devon and Cornwall PGA Tavistock 125th anniversary Pro-AM with a fantastic six-under-par 65.

He made the perfect start with four successive birdies to be out in 31. He was back in two-under 34 as his tally of birdies increased to eight. What a card!

Captain Stewart had the pleasure of competing in the Pro-am with James together with Jake and Julian Phillips.

A fine day, a little breeze and a wide course helped Stewart's game overall but his putting, which he says has let him down of late, did so again. He did however make a birdie 3 for 4 points on the 18th green where Jake and Julian failed to get one.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

AFTER the Canadian Greensomes competition was cancelled due to incessant rain on Monday, twenty-four seniors took part in a two-man Texas Scramble on Wednesday in conditions which were slightly better.

Even so, scoring proved to be difficult for most of the pairings. Head and shoulders above the rest of the field were Des Denning and John Chance as they completed the first nine holes in five under par for a score of 31.

Two bogies on the back nine saw them return a gross score of 67 (nett 60.5) to win by a margin of 5.25 shots.

Result: 1. Des Denning & John Chance, 60.50; 2. Roger Stone & Malcolm Roy, 65.75; 3. Chris Basterfield & Norman Markby, 68.25.

Fifty-three golfers assembled on Friday for one of the Seniors more important meetings – The Seniors Championship. This competition produces the player with the best gross score as well as the player with the best nett score.

In difficult conditions with strong winds and with the greens running fast, the competitors found the going hard playing off the white tees.

With no golfer achieving a score of par and below, the competition was reduced to a 'reductions only' event, and handicaps remained the same.

In the scratch section, Danny Dowell took the honours returning a score of seven over par, 77 which proved to be five shots better than his closest rival.

In the nett competition, Roger Stone was triumphant with a score of 72 which was one better than Ray Gudge and Danny Dowell who secured second and third places respectively.

Result: Scratch competition – Winner: Danny Dowell, 77; Runner-up: Roger Stone, 82; Nett competition – Winner: Roger Stone, 72; Runner-up: Ray Gudge, 73.

CHARD TOWN A OLDLAND ABBOTONIAN A

Attendance: 68

SATURDAY'S game at Zembard Lane was abandoned after just ten minutes when an Oldland player suffered a broken ankle after a challenge from Chard's Darren Hutchings.

"Darren put in a firm, but fair challenge and won the ball but unfortunately caught the lad too," said Chard manager Adam Fricker.

Hutchings was shown a red card by referee Said Ouchene with Chard leading 1-0 through a Scott Holland goal.

Robins: J.Hutchings, L.Bailey, D.Hutchings, S.Wells-Burr, M.Westlake, M.Scott, S.Holland, B.Haines, A.Martin, O.Latas, B.Symes.

SIDMOUTH TOWN 4 NEWTON ABBOTT 1

SIDMOUTH played hosts Axminster and, with both sets of players slipping on a greasy but firm surface, Axminster had the best of the early exchanges.

Sidmouth gradually came into the game with Ash Small delivering a ball that nearly found Riki Pitter. Mark Pavey then had a first time shot that was pushed over the bar.

Sid's back four were being tested by the lively opposing forwards but when a Matt Clenahan tackle fell to an attacker, the ball was tucked away – 0-1.

This should have stirred Sidmouth but Ax were then more aggressive and more up for the occasion and could have scored a couple more but for the alertness of Jamie Newbery.

Half-time arrived with Ax leading. After the break, Sid had an early chance to level things up through a strike from Aaron Doble that cannoned off the inside of the post.

Sidmouth continued to press and Cameron Vere was presented with a chance that he skillfully tucked away into the corner – 1-1.

Sidmouth were now on top and created further chances with well placed Doble shooting just over. On a rare ball into the Sid half, Tony Cox gifted the Ax forward the ball through a shocking back pass and he gleefully tucked it ball away – 1-2.

This knocked Sidmouth off their stride but they managed to compose themselves to create numerous chances with sub Ferenc Bodor shooting over from six yards.

Jake Boyland then hit the post and, from a corner, Ryan Davies had a header turned away by the visitors' goalkeeper. In the final moments, Kieran White shot at the keeper when well placed.

A disappointing performance against a poor Axminster side who showed more determination in the first half. Poor finishing and suicidal defending from Cox cost Sidmouth further points.

Man of the match: Jamie Newbery.

TIVERTON TOWN RESERVES 5 AXMINSTER TOWN 0

AXMINSTER Town failed to build on their fine mid-week victory at Sidmouth as they were hammered at Warren Patmore's Tiverton Town Reserves.

Luke Mortimer headed the hosts in front and added a second with a superb 25-yarder.

A Dave O'Connor second-half double put the game beyond the Tigers and Jessie Howe completed the nap-hand in a game where Tivvy keeper Mike Searle was largely redundant.

Tigers: S.Wells-Burr, M.Smale, L.Beer, G.Macauley, S.Broom, D.Galloway, A.Wheatley, C.Garrett, T.Pinder, B.Turner, J.Hurford.

"OUR back four and keeper were given a lesson in what it's like to play at a higher level," was Chard Reserves' manager Stuart Parris' assessment after his team were mauled at Wingfield Park.

"We were punished for every mistake we made – however, strange as it may look – we played the majority of the best football, but they looked like scoring every time they got near our goal."

Adam Tovey netted the Robins' sorry-looking consolation at 7-0.

A 3-0 HALF-TIME deficit proved to be too much of a mountain to climb for Ken Timson's Ilminster Reserves.

Alex Paul pulled one back only for the hosts to restore their three goal cushion. Liam Ryall struck again for the Blues who also squandered a late chance with AJ Carvell's 90th minute penalty struck straight at the visiting keeper.

LYME Regis proved too strong for the Showbiz team which was made up of London-based scriptwriters, producers and actors.

The visitors, who won the inaugural match 8-4 last year, were missing half-a-dozen key players, were very much still in the game at 2-1 at half-time.

Former Lyme player Anthony Peart, making a visit to his home town, put the Seaside ahead in the fourth minute only for former Eastenders actor Chris Coghill equalise five minutes later.

Mark Bailey put the hosts ahead in the 43rd minute and the second-half was a one-sided affair.

Peart scored twice to complete his hat-trick with Cody Bowditch (2), Rob Fellingham – a superb 25-yard free-kick, Joe Bond and first team manager Tim Edwards also getting on the scoresheet.

THE OPENING day's only match in the revamped top division saw a Mark Cawley hat-trick give West & Middle Chinnock the perfect start against Winsham United at Oxleaze.

The visitors wasted a golden chance to take a lead in the first minute when the hosts' Dan Tucker was penalised for a trip in the area – but Chinnock manager-keeper Matt Alford did well to beat out the resulting spot-kick from Darren Spurdle.

At the other end a fierce Connor Fletcher strike that cannoned off the crossbar was the highlight of a goal less first 45.

Four minutes after the Turnaround Cawley made not mistake when the hosts were awarded a penalty and they never looked back.

Cawley struck twice more to seal the win and hit the bar. Afterwards Alford gave a mention to Matt Burt for a fine debut.

Division One

HAWKCHURCH United made a fine start on their return to Division One after coming out on top in an eight-goal thriller against Waytown Hounds.

A Gavin Herrod double put the Hawks in control at the break.

Herrod completed his hat-trick soon after the interval before the Hounds went up through the gears to level at 3-3 with 20 minutes remaining.

Herrod conjured up his fourth as the Hounds recovered and Andy Dymond made it 5-3.

Meanwhile goals from Jon Davies and Richie Robinson long with an own goal saw Uplyme make a winning start to the Division after an absence of nine seasons. They were denied a clean sheet by a late Nye Dang penalty.

CHARACTER and commitment were the words used by Axminster Town manager Ian Burns after his team's somewhat unexpected victory over local rivals Sidmouth Town at their Manstone Lane HQ.

Burns told View Sport: "We had five players unavailable from Saturday's line-up and were forced into lots of positional changes – but the players that came in showed terrific heart and I felt we thoroughly deserved the win."

After a fairly even opening half-hour Axminster took the lead when a shot rebounded to the edge of the area to the waiting Callum Garrett cracked the ball home for his first goal in almost two years.

The Vikings were level before the break when a stray pass in the visiting defence was pounced upon by Cameron Vere, and the ex-Seaton and Exmouth Town man made no mistake.

A largely entertaining end-to-end encounter was decided when 16-year-old Tony Pinder chased what appeared to be a lost cause but forced a mix up in the home defence before gleefully netting the winner.

The youngster's endeavour drew high praise from Burns: "He runs and runs and has a big heart – he won't give up and can even be too over critical of himself."

Tigers: S.Wells-Burr, D.Galloway, L.Beer, N.Warren, G.Macauley, M.Smale, A.Wheatley, C.Garrett, T.Pinder, B.Turner, J.Hurford. Sub: K.Wellman.

A STRONG first-half showing saw Feniton continue their 100 per cent start to the season.

The Somerset side came back into the game after the turnaround with Fenny also missing a penalty.

Dan Norman (2), MoM Roberto Bergamini, Matt Kingdon and Brad Groves netted for the early league leaders.

Danny Aplin, a 25-yarder, and Jordan Allen scored the second-half consoling for the visitors.

Chard manager Stuart Parris rued an inconsistent performance from his side: "A much-changed back four took a while to settle and we were punished conceding three soft goals. We didn't switch on until we went 4-0 down early in the second-half."

"However, the majority of our new lads have come up from the Perry Street league – so it will take them a while to adjust to the step-up."

CHARD Town drew a blank for the first time in a dozen outings at Zembard Lane. Chard manager Adam Fricker thought the result about fair in the game of few chances.

The visitors missed a golden chance on the hour when Simon Millard fired over the bar from three yards out with the goal gaping.

Chard's best chance came 15 minutes from time when Scott Holland missed the target with a free header from a Max Westlake free-kick from just six-yards out.

Striker Ed Butcher was forced off in the first half with a shoulder injury.

"We're not sure of the extent yet," said Fricker.
